Biography

Eleno Núñez Gonzalez is a talented attorney who handles a wide array of litigation matters in both state and federal court, as well as administrative agencies, including the California Labor Commissioner's Office.

Eleno's practice focuses on defending employers and litigating complex employment law matters involving individual and/or class and representative wage and hour disputes, wrongful termination, retaliation, discrimination, and harassment. Additionally, Eleno works closely with his clients to provide advice and counsel to employers regarding California's Labor Code, including the Private Attorneys General Act, as well as the Fair Employment and Housing Act, and various state, federal, and local regulations. Eleno's practice also includes general civil litigation and trade secret misappropriation matters.

Eleno is a member of the Santa Clara County Bar Association and is fluent in German and Spanish. In his free time Eleno enjoys traveling, finding new places to eat, and spending time with his family and friends.
